MESSRS. SAMUEL DEATHERAGE, of Madison, and James West, of Garrard, were here Tuesday.

MES. M. MILLER, who made many friends during her long stay here, has returned to Louisville.

MR. MORRIS J. FARRIS, of Las Vegas, New Mexico, is on a short visit to his family here.—[Danville Advocate.]

MISS JENNIE SWEENEY, of Lancaster, passed through this city Wednesday, en route for Cincinnati and Owensboro.

MR. DANIEL STAGO, Sr., of Casey, was here Saturday and called in to console with us. He's got a bad sore himself.

MR. AND MRS. GED. D. WEAKES are visiting their daughter, Mrs. R. G. Hall, at Somerset and attending the fair.

MESSRS. SAM OWENS, John Farris, Will Huffaker, Wm. Foster and many others from here are attending the Somerset Fair.

DR. C. A. COX and wife have moved to Judge Sauley's. Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Sauley, of Monticello, will live with them.

GOV. AND MRS. J. P. EAGLE, of Arkansas, are in Richmond, receiving the congratulations of friends. The Governor's majority is about 16,000.

REV. R. B. MAHONY, pastor of the Newport Baptist church, wife and daughter are visiting their many friends in Millersburg.—[Paris Kentuckian.]

J. S. JONES, manager of S. L. Powers & Co.'s store here, says that Mr. Powers writes that he has opened up at Columbus, O., in grand style and that six clerks cannot wait on his customers.

MR. E. C. WALTON is holding up the INTERIOR JOURNAL's end of the log at the Somerset Fair, which is proving to be the best and most successful in the State. To-day closes the excellent exhibition.

MISS LUCIE BEAZLEY left Wednesday for Louisville, where she will serve her friends and the public as purchasing agent. Those desiring her assistance can address her at 505 West Chestnut.

JUDGE J. W. ALCOCK was made an honorary member of the "Anti-Chinese Democratic Club of Laurel County," last Monday and made a laudatory speech, upon which he was highly complimented by the entire club. The Judge has a host of warm friends in Laurel.

THE following persons took advantage of the cheap rate excursion on the K. C. to the Exposition at Cincinnati and left yesterday morning: Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Stagg, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Withers, Mrs. Kate Duderar, Miss Maggie Newland, Miss Kate Hall and Mr. C. C. Carson.

HON. BRECKINRIDGE JONES, of St. Louis, came after his wife and children, who have been spending the summer with her father, John M. Reid, and after remaining a day or two, left Tuesday for home. Mr. Jones is vice-president and general manager of the Decatur, Ala., Land Improvement and Furnace Co., made up of St. Louis capitalists, and will necessarily spend much of his time in the South this fall and winter.

CITY AND VICINITY.

EMPTY barrels at T. R. Walton's.

THE weather now is simply delicious.

Don't forget the Fresh Oysters, Fish and Celery at J. T. Harris'.

CALL at S. H. Shanks' and see the new goods he is daily receiving.

I HAVE just received a big line of fall shoes of the Zeigler Bros', make, and invite my customers to call and examine them. S. H. Shanks.

Look at Bruce & McRoberts' new "ad."

SCHLEGGEL will be here next Tuesday. See ad.

ANOTHER lot of new goods just received at S. H. Shanks'.

OYSTERS served in any style at 25 cents per half dozen at Zimmerman's.

AFTER September 30th the postoffice at Toddville, Garrard county, will be discontinued.

READ the advertisement of the sale of John D. Carpenter, deceased. It will be one of the largest sales ever in these parts.

I DESIRE to rent my property on Main street. For particulars and terms call on or address W. H. Higgins. Mrs. C. A. Holmes.

THE Millersburg Female College opened with 70 boarding and an unusually large number of day pupils. Rev. C. Pope has made this one of the most prosperous schools in the State.

We will leave in a few days for Louisville and Cincinnati to lay in our fall and winter stock of millinery which we will open by the 15th. All are invited to call and examine. Courts & Cox.

MAIN STREET, which is in a very bad condition, is at last to be repaired. E. G. Pennington has the contract to macadamize it from one end to the other, 18 feet wide and deep enough to make it level.

J. T. HOCKER has sold his general merchandise store at McKinney to J. West Bailey for cost and carriage. Mr. Hocker is undecided as to what business he will go into, but will likely remain at McKinney.

BROODHEAD.—Hon. Fort F. Bobbitt will address the people of Broodhead and vicinity Saturday afternoon at 2 on the tariff, with which question he is thoroughly conversant and which he handles in his inimitable way.

AN oil painting of little Lucille Cooper by Mrs. Kate Huffman Culbertson, of Covington, is on exhibition in Penny's show window and is a real gem of art. It is a perfect likeness and the execution is worthy of the best master.

CRAYON Portrait Painting executed promptly at reasonable prices. Specimens of my work can be seen at the furniture store of B. K. Wearen in Stanford, who will also give prices and other information, or address me at Kirksville, Mrs. Annie W. James.

THE wife of John Gastineau, who has been ill of malarial fever for sometime, attempted suicide at her home near Lancaster, Monday, by cutting her throat with a razor. Two gashes, one of which cut the windpipe, and the other barely missing the jugular, came near accomplishing her design.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK, STANFORD, KY. STOCK.—R. H. Courtney, Banker and Broker, Lexington, Ky., has for sale a few more shares of the stock of this good conditioned and well managed bank. Our readers should take advantage of this opportunity and communicate with him at once as the demand for this stock is becoming active with him.

JOHN BOSLEY says in his Winchester Sun that Lincoln county is a good place to go away from. Well, yes, in his case it looks so. Up at Winchester he seems to be a pretty big man, judging from the complimentary terms in which his party in the county endorsed him for Congress, while if he had remained here it is possible the transcendent genius of the great Lawyer What is It, would have so overshadowed him that Congress and his name would never have been associated.

BAD MAN TAKEN.—A Deputy U. S. Marshal, with the assistance of Thomas House, Jr., captured S. W. Pile in Casey Monday, and lodged him in jail here on a warrant charging him with resisting a federal officer, who was destroying a moonshine distillery in Tennessee in 1884, at which time J. M. Phillips, one of the marshals, was killed. Pile was driving a two-horse wagon and just as he drove out of the ford of Green river, near Liberty, the officer leveled a shot-gun with both barrels cocked and he surrendered unconditionally, when House locked the bracelets on his wrists. Pile was known as a desperate character, and it was thought that he would die before he would submit to arrest, but he didn't. He has a brother serving a ten years' sentence for his participation in the same trouble for which he will now be tried.

THE Club serenade of Judge M. C. Sauley was attended by over 200 persons, more than 150 of whom were in line. The Clubs of McKinney and Hustonville were largely represented and the display was very creditable. After several appropriate selections, well rendered by the Gold and Silver Band, Col. Welch presented the Club in a very happy little speech, to which Judge Sauley very eloquently and feelingly responded. Each member and others then shook hands with the Judge and Mrs. Sauley and many a moist eye told mutely how sad the parting was. The family left Wednesday for Laramie, Wyoming, with the exception of Miss Helen, who has gone to Knoxville to become an art student. There is a deep and general regret over the departure of this very excellent family, in which we very sincerely join.

THE College has 66, the Seminary 40 and the Public School 55 pupils up to date.

THOMPSON, the barber, is still alive and better than ever prepared to please the public in anything in his line.

AL FIELD's Minstrels inaugurated their fourth season in grand style at Columbus last week and the papers there speak in the highest terms of the new features introduced and of the entertainment generally. They will be with us Oct. 13th.

THE horse driven by Mrs. John Von Grunagan and sister became frightened at the depot Wednesday and in starting to run turned quickly, upsetting the vehicle and throwing the ladies to the ground with great violence. Luckily they escaped unhurt, save a few bruises and a bad scare.

BOB WHITLEY, night porter at the Portman House, shot twice at Jim Tall, another negro, Wednesday night, because, as he says, Jim was trying to take the office by force and otherwise. No arrest was made, but a warrant against Bob for not killing the pestiferous little rascal, who has already killed a boy, ought to be issued.

MRS. CLARK, of Danville, was here this week with the view, she said, of arranging for a lecture here by Mrs. Belva Lockwood, the woman's rights candidate for the presidency. Our people would probably not care to hear her lecture, but if she were waged and a small admission fee charged, they would pony up to see what kind of a looking creature she is.

We hear murmurs of considerable dissatisfaction among the colored voters with the actions of the bosses and one or more have said they will vote with the democrats next time. It is about time they were awakening to the fact that the democrats are their true friends and that it is unworthy of them to do the bidding of the radical bosses, like dumb driven cattle. We hope that Mr. R. C. Warren will address them especially at an early date.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

—John Kidd and Miss Mary Brooks were united in marriage yesterday near Maywood.

—W. H. Bressler and Miss Caroline Sallier were married near Crab Orchard yesterday.

—C. C. Terry took to himself a wife yesterday in the person of Miss Sara E. Hubble, of McKinney.

—We are in receipt of the after cards of Mr. and Mrs. James Bailey Dunlap, who were married at Los Angeles, Cal., on the 5th. The bride was Miss Laura Comstock White, and is said to be a very elegant and accomplished lady. Mr. Dunlap is prosecuting attorney for his district and is stepping right along into prominence and favor in his adopted home. His friends here and elsewhere in Kentucky will learn of his happiness with pleasure, and wish him a long life of conjugal bliss and continued prosperity.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—Old corn sold in Madison at $3.35.

—Best wheat is worth 90 cents in Cincinnati.

—Harry T. Bush sold to E. P. Wood a lot of mule colts at $50.

—A farm of 103 acres for rent. Apply to C. L. Crow, Stanford.

—A. T. Nunnelley bought of Dr. J. B. Owsley a lot of dry cows at 2½ cts.

—FOR RENT.—The William Hays house with 10 to 50 acres, as preferred, for '89. F. Reid.

—J. E. Kern, of Bourbon, sold to Jno. Darnell, of Savannah, Ga., 11 big mules for $1,805.

—A. M. Pence has bought in the last few days a number of two-year-old cattle at 4 cts.

—A. T. Nunnelley bought of S. H. Baughman a small bunch of 1,000-pound heifers at 3 cts.

—James Bean bought Wednesday of Thomas Wood, of Danville, 40 1,280-lb. steers at $4.60.—[Winchester Democrat.]

—J. F. Ridd, Atlanta, is himself again and stockmen would do well to confer with him. See notice from him in this issue.

—Monroe Leer sold his sweepstake jack to J. H. Mooney, of Centralia, Kas., for $1,200. Henry Bishop bought in St. Louis 100 mules at $80 to $140.—[Paris News.]

—P. P. Nunnelley bought of Sam Harris 10 head of 1,000-pound cattle at 3 cts.; 3 cows, averaging 1,200, at 2 cts.; one 1,400-pound bull at 1½ cts. and a 1,500-lb. cow for $15.

—Cattle are firm in Cincinnati at 1½ to 5½ cts, the latter for best shippers. Hogs are dull and lower, best selling at 6½ cts; sheep are active at 2½ to 4½, best wethers 4 to 4½; stockers 3½ to 5½.

—W. W. & P. C. Sandidge have sold to Dr. Franklin, of Glasgow, their fine combined stallion, Second Jewel, for $1,700. During the three years Second Jewel has been in the hands of the Sandidges he has been shown in fair rings 42 times and has 35 of these times taken the blue ribbon.

—A. B. & L. W. Hudson bought 35 head of fat mules from Wakefield & Lee at $180 per head. Martin, Thompson & Co bought of John Towner 56 yearling mules at $115 per head. Same sold to Mr. Averett, of Marion, 29 yearling mules at $106 per head. L. W. Hudson bought one extra fine pair of 3-year-old mules for $450.—[Danville Advocate.]

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

TO STOCKMEN.

Having regained my health I have opened stables at my old stand, Nos. 54, 56 and 58 South Pryor Street, Atlanta, Georgia. I would be glad to secure all my former patronage and desire to call the attention of all shippers to this point to my stables. Liberal advance made on stock. No interest charged. J. F. REDD.

CUT THIS OUT.

L. SCHLEGEL, the Richmond Photographer, will be in Stanford.

Tuesday, September 18, 1888.

Tuesday, October 2 and 30.

Tuesday, November 13 and 27.

Tuesday, December 11 and 25.

And will make negatives on those days by using the instantaneous process. Pictures can be made just as well on cloudy as on clear days. I also wish to mention that parties having Pictures enlarged in Croton, Water Color or Oil, will find it to their advantage to have it done at home instead of sending them off with strangers, as I can copy them just as cheap and give entire satisfaction. Thanking the people of Lincoln county for their patronage, and hoping for a continuance of same, I am Very Respectfully,
J. L. SCHLEGEL, Photographer.
